Anthropology MI101

Instructor: Dr. Phil Stringer

I. Course Description

This course traces the origins, physical and cultural development, social customs, and beliefs of man with an emphasis on God and the Bible.

II. Course Objectives

As a result of taking this class, the student should be able to demonstrate an understanding of:

- A. The definitions of 'culture' and the impacts of culture upon the native and foreigner.
- B. The different systems of economics and social lifestyles traditionally seen throughout the world.
- C. The different systems of family and political systems traditionally seen throughout the world.

III. Course Requirements

A. Required Reading:

Required readings are reproduced within the course.

- #### B. Class work:
- There are 27 lectures relating to 18 self-directed Study Packs for this course. The student is expected to listen to the lectures, answer the Study Pack questions, and confirm the accuracy of their answers. Tests should be taken according to the Test Schedule.

IV. Tests & Grading

The tests will be graded on a percentage basis with 80% the minimum score for a passing grade. Scores less than 80% will require the student to repeat the lessons pertaining to the test.
