Dear Recruitment Manager,

I read with excitement you're posting for a Registered Nurse with Firelands Health. As an upcoming graduate Firelands Regional Medical Center School of Nursing program, my unique combination of clinical experience, coupled with a background in leadership and healthcare administration, I am confident I will make an excellent addition to your nursing team.

As my resume shows, through my education, I gained extensive experience in leadership and all-around healthcare needs. Throughout my program, I was known by all to be dependable and thoughtful, with a solid foundation in time management. I have strong adaptability skills, and I enjoy teamwork. I am ready to put my skills to work. I have excellent bedside manner and can always find a way to form a rapport with my patients to make them feel comfortable. I enjoyed my training in this industry, and I am excited to take the next step in my nursing career. While in the military I earned, numerous honors including a second-class petty officer, an air warfare pin, a surface warfare pin, good conduct award, a flag letter of commendation (FLOC), a national defense service medal, a GW-Terrorism service medal, sea service deployment ribbon, a GW-Terrorism expeditionary, navy "E" ribbon, and humanitarian service medal

My resume is attached here for your review. I hope to set up a time with you at your convenience to discuss the positive contributions I could make to the emergency department at Firelands Health. Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

Yours sincerely,
Cassidy Hall
