1. Describe your outstanding personality characteristics (relevant to nursing) possessed at the completion of the program:

Willing to put in hard work to meet goals for patients. Curious to always learn more. Effective communicator with patients, families, and coworkers. Optimistic and encourage patients who are on their way to recovery. Compassionate, detail oriented, empathetic and good critical thinking skills to be able to solve problems.

2. Describe your special interests and abilities in nursing:

My special interests and abilities in nursing include good time management skills, effective communication, pay attention to detail, critical thinking and problem solving to figure things out, and being a team player. I truly enjoy activities that assist others. I love to always learn something new and do things that help with my personal development.

3. Discuss your experiences with interpersonal relationships – faculty and staff, patients and their families, and members of the healthcare team throughout the nursing program:

My experiences with interpersonal relationships involve actively listening to others rather just listening to what they have to say and not really taking it in. I am respectful of others ideas and opinions, even when they differ from my own ideas and opinions. I do not insult or attack others when they speak. I truly try to understand why they feel the way they do. When it comes to faculty I listened to them always. Even on the hard days when mental break downs occurred I would always listen and they helped me believe in myself!

4. Participation in activities throughout the program:

Junior year I participating in class historian. I always participated in Make a Difference Day Senior year!

5. Explain at least 2 professional goals you would like to achieve during your nursing career:

Two professional goals I would love to achieve during my nursing career are advancing my nursing degree at some point. I hope to specialize in a certain field after I have put some years and experience in. I also would love to start volunteering to do things to help others out, no matter what it might be. & a big goal I always want to stick with is to take care of myself always.
