Patients often use the Internet to search for health-related issues. Search the Internet for any health-related issue of your choosing. Evaluate the website by answering the following questions:

1. Do the authors have qualifications listed? What are their qualifications? What is the domain? (.gov, .edu, .org) No they don't. USA.gov, cdc.gov
2. When was the site created? When was the site last updated or revised? It doesn't give a date of when it was created or last updated or revised but it does state the last day it was viewed.
3. Who is the targeted audience? Does the web site present facts or opinions? Its targeted audience is a wide range. It does state facts.
4. How complete and accurate is the content information? Does it agree with other expert sources? It is complete and accurate and yes it agrees with other expert sources.
5. Does the site load quickly? Is it a secured site? Are there graphics, or pictures on the page that serve a purpose? If so what are they and how do they relate to the health issue? Yes it loads quickly and yes it is a secure site. No pictures but it does have video on its page. In the video two people are having a discussion about diabetes.
