

1. How many new HIV infections were diagnosed in Erie County during 2022?

There were 3 new cases of HIV diagnosed in Erie County in 2022.

2. How many total new HIV infections were diagnosed in Ohio during 2022?
 - a. Total # of cases:

There were 866 new cases of HIV in Ohio in 2022

- b. # of male cases:

There were 644 male cases.

- c. # of female cases:

There were 188 female cases.

3. What 6 counties in Ohio had the most new HIV infections diagnosed during 2022? Include the # of cases for each county.

The 6 counties in Ohio with the most new cases of HIV in 2022 were Franklin County with 196 cases, Cuyahoga County with 120 cases, Hamilton County with 95 cases, Montgomery County with 53 cases, Lucas County with 39 cases, and Summit County also with 39 cases.