Homework Assignment Questions and Answers

Please read the chapter and answer the following questions:

1. Malpractice and negligence are examples of what kind of law?

Both are examples of unintentional torts in civil law

2. What charges may be brought against a nurse for confining a client against his or her wishes (outside of an emergency situation)?

A nurse may be charged with false imprisonment

3. Which ethical theory espouses that what is right and good is what is best for the individual making the decision? Which quality and safety in nursing education competency may be, at least in part, consistent with ethical egoism?

The theory that espouses what is good and right should be to the benefit of the individual is ethical egoism. In the attitudes section of the Patient-Centered Care competencies, “.Respect and encourage individual expression of patient values, preferences and expressed needs ” may fall in line with ethical egoism.

4. Name the three major elements of informed consent.

The three major elements of informed consent include the information is fully relayed to the patient, the patient fully comprehends the information relayed, and the patient signs consent and acknowledges their ability to consent.
