Homework Assignment Questions and Answers

Please read the chapter and answer the following questions:

1. Malpractice and negligence are examples of what kind of law?

Torts – Civil Law

2. What charges may be brought against a nurse for confining a client against his or her wishes (outside of an emergency situation)? False Imprisonment – health care workers can be charged with false imprisonment for restraining or secluding against the wishes of the client.

3. Which ethical theory espouses that what is right and good is what is best for the individual making the decision? Which quality and safety in nursing education competency may be, at least in part, consistent with ethical egoism?

Ethical egoism espouses that what is right and good is what is best for the individual making the decision. Providing patient centered care speaks to some elements of ethical egoism. This competency promotes listening to and respecting the patient's values, preferences, and expressed needs in care management decisions.

4. Name the three major elements of informed consent.

Three major elements of informed consent are:

Knowledge – the client has received adequate information on which to base his or her decision.

Competency – the individual's cognition is not impaired to an extent that would interfere with decision making, but if cognition is so impaired, the individual has a legal representative.

Free will – the individual has given consent voluntarily without pressure or coercion from others.
