Dear Nurse Recruitment,

I plan to graduate from the Firelands Regional Medical Center School of Nursing on May 5, 2026, and I am seeking employment. I plan to take the licensure examination for registered nursing on May 25, 2026.

I am excited to submit my application for the Labor and Delivery Registered Nurse position at Firelands Regional Medical Center. Labor and Delivery nursing is a field I am deeply passionate about, and I am drawn to Firelands because of its commitment to compassionate, patient-centered care.

I strive to create a calm, supportive environment while providing safe clinical care, patient education, and emotional reassurance during what can be both joyful and challenging moments. I value teamwork and take pride in building trusting relationships with patients and colleagues alike.

Firelands Regional Medical Center's focus on quality care and strong community values resonates with me, and I would be honored to contribute to your Labor and Delivery team. I am eager to grow as a nurse while supporting the mission of your organization.

Thank you for considering my application. I would appreciate the opportunity to further discuss my interest in this position.

I am looking forward to hearing from you and can be reached at (216)526-0175 or seannitabyrd@gmail.com. My resume is enclosed.

Yours very truly,

Seannita E McCracken

Dear Nurse Recruitment,

Please accept this letter as formal notice of my resignation from my position as a Registered Nurse in the Department of Labor and Delivery at Firelands Regional Medical Center. My final day of employment will be February 20, 2026, in accordance with my notice period.

This decision was made after thoughtful consideration and is due to relocation to another state. I am truly grateful for the opportunities I have had at Firelands and for the support, teamwork, and mentorship I have received throughout my time on the unit.

Working in Labor and Delivery alongside such compassionate and dedicated colleagues has been a meaningful experience, and I will always value the skills and relationships I have gained here. I am committed to ensuring a smooth transition and will do everything I can to support the team during my remaining time.

Thank you again for the opportunity to be part of Firelands Regional Medical Center. I wish you, the department, and our patients continued success.

Sincerely,

Seannita E McCracken
