EVALUATION OF CLINICAL PERFORMANCE TOOL
Nursing Foundations – 2020

Firelands Regional Medical Center School of Nursing
Sandusky, Ohio

Student:

Cassie Klaehn

Semester:

Final Grade: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory

Date of Completion:

Faculty: Frances Brennan, MSN, RN; Lora Malfara, MSN, RN; Amy Rockwell, MSN, RN; Brittany Schuster, MSN, RN
Teaching Assistant: Devon Cutnaw, BSN, RN; Nick Simonovich, BSN, RN

DIRECTIONS FOR USE:

Each week the students evaluate themselves based on the competencies using the performance code on page 2. The performance code includes the terms Satisfactory (S), Needs Improvement (NI), Unsatisfactory (U), and Not Available (NA). The faculty member will initial if in agreement with the student's evaluation. If there is a discrepancy in the performance code evaluation between the student and the faculty member, a note is written on the comment section by the faculty member with the rationale for the evaluation. All competencies must be rated a "S, NI, or U". If the student does not self-rate, then it is an automatic "U". A student who submits the clinical evaluation tool late will be rated as "U" in the appropriate competency(s) for that clinical week. Whenever a student receives a "U" in a competency, the following week it must be addressed with a comment as to why it is no longer a "U". If the student does not state why the "U" is corrected, then it will be another "U" until the student addresses it. All clinical competencies are critical to meeting the objectives of the course. If the final performance code is unsatisfactory in any one of the competencies, a grade of unsatisfactory is given. If a pattern of unsatisfactory performance occurs after performing the competency satisfactorily, this also constitutes a grade of unsatisfactory. An unsatisfactory as a final score in any single competency results in a clinical course grade of unsatisfactory; this is a failure of the course. The terms Satisfactory and Unsatisfactory will be used in evaluating the final grade or clinical course performance.

PERFORMANCE CODE

SATISFACTORY CLINICAL PERFORMANCE

Satisfactory (S): Safe; accurate each time, efficient, coordinated; confident, focuses on the patient; some expenditure of excess energy; within a reasonable time period; appropriate affective behavior; occasional supporting cues; minimal faculty feedback related to written clinical work.

UNSATISFACTORY CLINICAL PERFORMANCE

Needs Improvement (NI): Safe; accurate each time; skillful in parts of behavior; focuses more on the skill and self rather than the patient; inefficient, uncoordinated, anxious, worried, flustered at times; expends excess energy within a delayed time period, frequent verbal and occasional physical directive cues in addition to supportive cues; faculty feedback required in several areas of clinical written work.

Unsatisfactory (U): Failure to achieve the course competency, safe but needs faculty reminders constantly, not always accurate, unskilled, inefficient, considerable expenditure of excess energy, anxious, disruptive or omitting behaviors, focus on skills and/or self, continuous verbal and frequent physical cues, unsafe, performs at risk to patient/patients/others, unable to function, incomplete, erroneous, faulty, illegible clinical written work, no feedback sought from faculty or response to feedback not evident in submitted written work. If the student does not self-rate a competency the competency is graded "U." A "U" in a competency must be addressed in writing by the student in the Evaluation of Clinical Performance tool. The student response must include how the competency has been or will be met at a satisfactory level. If the student does not address the "U," the faculty member (s) will continue to rate the competency unsatisfactory.

OTHER

Not Available (NA): The clinical experience which would meet the competency was not available.

Clinical Location; Patient age			NA	NA	4N; 57	NA

Comments

Week 5 objective 1 (c,d) – By introducing yourself and plan of care and by obtaining vital signs in a timely manner, you respected your patient's needs and coordinated your care appropriately. You used Maslow's hierarchy to interpret the appropriateness of obtaining vital signs at the designated time and understood that the patient did not have other needs that needed addressed first. Great job this week! NS

Competencies: a. Perform head to toe assessment utilizing techniques of inspection, palpation and auscultation (Responding).						NA
b. Use correct technique for vital sign measurement (Responding).			NA	NA	S	NA
c. Conduct a fall assessment and institute appropriate precautions (Responding).						NA
d. Conduct a skin risk assessment and institute appropriate precautions (Responding).
e. Collect the nutritional data of assigned patient (Noticing).
f. Demonstrates appropriate insertion, maintenance, and removal of NG tube (Responding).
g. Describe the findings and the rationale for diagnostic studies with the nursing implications for assigned patient (Interpreting).
			DC	NS	NS	BS

Comments

Week 5 objective 2 (b) – Great job with your first experience obtaining vital signs on a live patient! You were able to use correct technique to obtain accurate vital sign measurements on your patient. You noticed that your patient's breathing was outside of normal parameters with a RR of 24 and deep, labored breathing and charted the information correctly. You also noticed your patient's elevated blood pressure and used clinical judgement when discussing risk factors for hypertension. Great job! NS

f. Participate as an accountable health care team member in the provision of patient centered care (Responding).			NA	NA	S	NA
			DC	NS	NS	BS

Comments

Week 5 objective 3 (e,f) – You did a great job communicating with your patient in the role of a student nurse for the first time. By introducing yourself and your role, you allowed the patient to feel more comfortable in your care. By communicating effectively, you are initiating the therapeutic nurse-patient relationship. (f) By obtaining vital signs and documenting your findings within the EHR, you participated as an accountable member of the health care team to provide patient care. Great job! NS

Week 4 objective 5 (a,b) – Great job evaluating yourself honestly in this competency. Keep in mind this was your first experience and it is easy to forget those early steps because you are so focused on the task at hand. I have no doubt you will be satisfactory in the future! (b) You did a great job this week applying the principles of asepsis and following infection control measures by foaming in and out of the patient's room to maintain good hand hygiene. Additionally, you wore your mask at all times which follows the infection control guidelines for COVID-19. NS

Week 5- A. My strength this week was that entered the patient's room confidently and communicated with the patient well. Additionally, I noticed my patient had a high BP. Awesome strength to note this week! Despite this being your first experience with a real patient in the role of a student nurse, I thought you exuded confidence when entering the room and providing care. Despite this being your first time taking vital signs on a patient, you were still able to notice and interpret abnormal vital signs and used good clinical judgement in discussing potential causes for the abnormalities. Excellent job! NS

Week 5- B. I need to improve in being more cautious with my surroundings with the patient. I struggled with maneuvering around the patient and I accidentally bumped her IV site. I will improve by reminding myself to look out for potential "hazards" when dealing with a patient. Great use of self-reflection to identify an area for self-growth. With this being the first time entering a patient's room to provide care, it is certainly not out of the ordinary to feel a little "clumsy" in the room. Nerves and being focused on the task at hand can cause you to have a sort of tunnel vision. I think your ability to reflect and your plan for improvement will allow you to feel more comfortable in the room in the future! Keep up the hard work. NS

Nursing Foundations – 2020

Firelands Regional Medical Center School of Nursing
Sandusky, Ohio

I was given the opportunity to review my final clinical ratings in each course competency. I was given the opportunity to ask questions about my clinical performance. I have the following comments to make about my clinical performance/final clinical evaluation:
