DIRECTIONS FOR USE:

Each week the students evaluate themselves based on the competencies using the performance code on page 2. The performance code includes the terms Satisfactory (S), Needs Improvement (NI), Unsatisfactory (U), and Not Available (NA). The faculty member will initial if in agreement with the student's evaluation. If there is a discrepancy in the performance code evaluation between the student and the faculty member, a note is written in the comment section by the faculty member with the rationale for the evaluation. All competencies must be rated a "S, NI, U, or NA". If the student does not self-rate, then it is an automatic "U". A student who submits the clinical evaluation tool late will be rated as "U" in the appropriate competency(s) for that clinical week. Whenever a student receives a "U" in a competency, it must be addressed with a comment as to why it is no longer a "U" the following week. If the student does not state why the "U" is corrected, it will be another "U" until the student addresses it. All clinical competencies are critical to meeting the objectives of the course. If the final performance code is unsatisfactory or needs improvement in any one of the competencies, a grade of unsatisfactory is given. If a pattern of unsatisfactory performance occurs after performing the competency satisfactorily, this also constitutes a grade of unsatisfactory. An unsatisfactory or needs improvement as a final score in any single competency results in a clinical course grade of unsatisfactory; this is a failure of the course. The terms Satisfactory and Unsatisfactory will be used in evaluating the final grade or clinical course performance.

METHODS OF EVALUATION:

- Clinical Assignments
- Completion of Patient Care
- Meditech Documentation
- Observation of Clinical Performance

PERFORMANCE CODE

SATISFACTORY CLINICAL PERFORMANCE

Satisfactory (S): Safe; accurate each time, efficient, coordinated; confident, focuses on the patient; some expenditure of excess energy; within a reasonable time period; appropriate affective behavior; occasional supporting cues; minimal faculty feedback needed related to written clinical work.

UNSATISFACTORY CLINICAL PERFORMANCE

Needs Improvement (NI): Safe, accurate each time, skillful in parts of behavior, focuses more on the skill and self rather than the patient, inefficient, uncoordinated, anxious, worried, and flustered at times, expends excess energy within a delayed time period, frequent verbal and occasional physical directive cues in addition to supportive cues, faculty feedback required in several areas of clinical written work.

Unsatisfactory (U): Failure to achieve the course competency, safe but needs faculty reminders constantly, not always accurate, unskilled, inefficient, considerable expenditure of excess energy, anxious, disruptive or omitting behaviors, focus on skills and/or self, continuous verbal and frequent physical cues, unsafe, performs at risk to patient/clients/others, unable to function, incomplete, erroneous, faulty, illegible clinical written work, no feedback sought from faculty or response to feedback not evident in submitted written work. If the student does not self-rate a competency the competency is graded "U." A "U" in a competency must be addressed in writing by the student in the Evaluation of Clinical Performance tool. The student response must include how the competency has been or will be met at a satisfactory level. If the student does not address the "U," the faculty member (s) will continue to rate the competency unsatisfactory.

OTHER

Not Available (NA): The clinical experience which would meet the competency was not available.

Grey shaded weekly competency boxes do not need a student evaluation rating or faculty/teaching assistant initials.

Week 5-1(a-f, h) Chesney, you did an excellent job taking care of your patient this week while managing complex care situations. Your care was very organized and you were well prepared. You did a great job prioritizing your respiratory and cardiac assessment for this patient, and monitoring his oxygenation status very closely. You had excellent communication with the patient on both days, and respected his values. You also did a great job responding appropriately to equipment alarms. Your medication passes were very well done on both days, and you were able to administer PO, IVP, and SubQ medications. Your patient had a PICC line, so you were able to gain some good experience with managing care for this type of IV access. Keep up all your great work! BL

Week 5-2(a) Chesney, you did an excellent job with your pathophysiology in which you addressed this competency. Your pathophysiology was very detailed and well done. It was clear that you spent a substantial amount of time on this assignment. Please see the Pathophysiology Grading Rubric at the end of this document for my feedback. BL

Week 5-2(c) This week you did an excellent job recognizing changes in your patient’s status and taking appropriate action. You noticed when your patient came back to the room from radiology that he was complaining of feeling SOB and his SpO2 was decreased. You responded by checking his oxygen tubing and you realized it had not been connected correctly when he was returned to the room and therefore the patient was receiving no oxygen. You did a great job remaining calm, and thinking. You were able to get the oxygen tubing hooked up correctly and your patient’s SpO2 then increased. You also did an excellent job taking appropriate action when your patient presented with hypoglycemia on Wednesday. Again, you remained calm and responded by following the “Rule of 15s.” Keep up all your great work! BL
