	Instructor Comments: Excellent job describing two goals that have motivated you to continue your nursing education. You provided great detail related to the comparison of LPN practice and RN practice as it relates to nursing skills and functions, leadership responsibilities, and peer relationships. Shawnita, great job with your Role Transition Paper. Please see the comments above for specific feedback on each section of the paper. In general, there were a few minor APA formatting errors throughout the paper, as well as some grammar and spelling errors. Your journal article reference was > 5 years old; therefore, you received only one point. The content of the paper was only 2.5 pages in length; therefore, three points were deducted for not meeting the minimum requirement. Remember the title page and reference page does not count. Overall, very nicely done.
