

Doing Business God's Way: Chapter 4

Our God Loves to Work

BY DENNIS PEACOCKE

Copyright © GoStrategic 2019

MASTER PRINCIPLE #4:
Work is a holy, everlasting calling.

Doing Business God's Way: Chapter 4

Our God Loves to Work

BY DENNIS PEACOCKE

MASTER PRINCIPLE #4: Work is a holy, everlasting calling.

Homework:

1. The text states, "work allows what is inside of me to be revealed to the outside world." How do you relate to this statement? Read Mark 7:14-23.

2. In this section, describe what work does in the modern world:

3. What did Jesus mean in Matthew 6:19-20?

4. What are the four things that wealth is centered around?

5. What is the primary difference between capitalism and Kingdom economics?

6. What has been your experience with Christians in the workplace?

Quiz:

1. Work is best defined as:

- a. A result of the fall and a curse
- b. A holy, everlasting calling
- c. Something we should seek to be released from
- d. An unpleasant necessity

2. Wealth is:

- a. Not something you can define as it consists of so many intangible things
- b. The things that carry transcendent value because they were created by God, e.g. land, animals, gold/silver, manpower
- c. Found in the world system, e.g. money, gold/silver, commodities

3. Riches are best defined as:

- a. Things made by people that can be bought or sold, therefore, they fall under the control of mammon
- b. An abundance of money that God wants everyone to have
- c. Real estate, livestock, and other tangible assets

