

GoLife100 Scope & Sequence

SCOPE:

The purpose of the first-year course:

- To train both current and emerging Christian leaders in the concepts essential to clear and assertive thinking and expression, in regard to a biblical Christian worldview.
- To instill a vision and motivation in the Students for becoming a prophetic voice to their culture as ambassadors of the Kingdom of God.
- To develop in the students a working, intellectual comfort with the basic concepts of presuppositional thought and analysis, regarding the nature of God, the nature of man, and the nature of truth.

Reading Assignments:

- Emotionally Healthy Spirituality by Peter Scazzero: This book addresses the signs of emotionally unhealthy spirituality and provides seven biblical, reality-tested ways to break through and experientially know the power of an authentic life in Christ.
- Discipling the Nations by Darrow L. Miller: This book provides an excellent introduction to the prevailing worldviews of the day. Miller argues that the most effective tool we can wield in our efforts on behalf of the needy is a biblical worldview.
- Winning the Battle for the Minds of Men by Dennis Peacocke: This book is an introductory book on the Kingdom of God, a biblical theology of Christian political action, jurisdictional government, and a call to action.

Audio Series:

- Living Life God's Way by Dennis Peacocke: This 8-part series serves as the Introductory Module for the course. Its focus is on building a strategic life of Christian discipleship built on spending regular time with God.
- GoLife100 Curriculum (24-part audio series):
 - Course Overview: Lesson 1 outlines the vision for the first year and a systematic plan for maximizing the impact of the course in the lives of participants.
 - Life As Discovery: Lessons 2-5 examine God's plan for effective and fruitful growth in the life of a believer.
 - Why Study Christian Worldview: Lessons 6-9 examine the importance of building a Christian worldview and the foundational steps that are needed to begin this process.
 - Introduction to Worldview & Philosophy: Lessons 10-13 examine the basic components of any consistent worldview and a historical overview of the philosophical ideas that have shaped the prevailing worldview of our culture.
 - The 'Root' Presuppositions of the Christian Faith: Lessons 14-18 are designed to equip the listener with the incredibly powerful tool of presuppositional thinking. It both explains the basic presuppositions of the Christian worldview and teaches you how to recognize and address the underlying assumptions of others.
 - Becoming a Prophetic Voice to Your Culture: Lessons 19-24 focus on six essential truths that must be built into our Christian worldview in order that we would be a prophetic voice to our culture as ambassadors of the Kingdom of God.

GoLife100 Service Project:

Each student will complete a service project in the community that demonstrates a Christian response to a specific need. Two reports will be submitted for credit:

- Part-A Report is part of the planning stage; it describes your mission, timeline, and objectives.
- Part-B Report is submitted at the end of the course. It details the results of your Service Project and how it relates to the truths and principles of the GoLife100 materials.
