

Group-Time Planning Form (continued)

End (Warning and transition to the next part of the routine)	When children start to lose interest, let them know it is time to move onto the next activity. older children can help disassemble climbing materials/objects.
Follow-up Ideas	May eventually make a climbing obstacle course when more children are comfortable climbing and jumping.