

Try It Out: COR Advantage Items Form

Gap Considerations	COR Advantage Item	Ideas for Filling In the Gap
Am I forgetting to look for this item?		How will you plan to look for the missing item? (List at least two ideas.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Watch more carefully during our sign in time. - Continue practicing our letters during meal times.
Do I have materials in the classroom to support this type of play?		What item-related materials would you add? (List at least two ideas.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Some simple pattern strips for things like stickers or doobers that kids can use during work time in the art area. - Use more movement related songs for the kids to better understand the idea of repetition.
Are there activities that I could do throughout my daily routine to support this COR Advantage item?		What item-related activities would you add to your lesson plan? (List at least two ideas.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I would incorporate more art projects in our small group activities. Things like painting and gluing are pretty interesting to the kids. - Add clipboards to our writing center for kids to make menus or lists during free play.
Could I use language related to the missing COR Advantage item to support children's learning and development in this area?		List specific examples of item-related language you would use. (List at least two ideas.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Plan for more one on one time with the student who may need extra support or spread yourself out more to reach multiple different children in a regular class day. - Narrate more positive interactions with adults to show they are supported.