

I believe I am in the Supportive Climate on the continuum. I plan small groups considering the children's interest and abilities. My visual stance is present so I can listen, observe, and interact with each child. I participate in the activities with them.

I will continue to provide a more supportive role by providing more engaging activities and allowing the children to manipulate the material freely.