

Janet Miller

1. Children are inspired to engage in activities that they enjoy doing, and they can involve their own ideas. The teacher supports the children.
2. I try to create a warm environment where children are not afraid to express themselves verbally or in actions and I listen.
3. I will try to continue the activities into the transition time ,instead of changing,