

At this time I feel I'm supportive on the high scope climate of learning. Throughout the day I am encouraging active learning and playing as partners during the day. Moving forward I'd like to encourage more creative thinking and child initiated activities for the children.