Hermeneutics BI211

Instructor: Dr. Daniel Haifley

I. Course Description

This is a detailed study of the principles of scriptural interpretation. Concepts such as context, dispensations, illumination, and figures of speech are taught in this course.

II. Course Objectives

As a result of taking this class, the student should be able to demonstrate an understanding of how to interpret Scripture correctly.

III. Course Requirements

A. Required Reading: The Bible Study Toolbox, by Dr. Haifley

B. Class work: You will answer questions as you read through the book. These questions are found on downloadable documents in the Resources section of the online course.

C. Bible Memorization: Scripture memory is given throughout the course.

IV. Tests & Grading

There are eight sections of questions that correspond with the book. After each of these sections, you will write a paper on the things you learned in that section. Each paper is 1,500 word minimum. Each paper will need to be typed, double spaced, 12 point Times New Roman font. You may print the papers out or email them to jjulian@dbc.edu
