

NT 321 Prison Epistles

Learning Tasks for Week 11

In your response, do not write out the scripture/verse. Paraphrase the verse and use a parenthetical reference. Example: Through Paul's teaching to the believers in Ephesus, he shares that the work of ministry in a local community of faith should never be limited to the pastor (Eph. 4:11-12).

Learning Task 1: In 5 sentences, share whether you enjoy being a servant.

Learning Task 2: Read pages (156-172)

Learning Task 3: Share the four factors of serving McGhee offers and write a summary statement for each section in 2-3 sentences.

Learning Task 4: Google the phrase "Cheap Grace and Dietrich Bonhoeffer." Find a short article about "Cheap Grace." In 5 sentences, share your understanding of "cheap grace."

Learning Task 5: Share the three areas where the power of the Holy Spirit enables us.

Learning Task 6: Share the four keys to making heaven our home and offer a summary statement for each section in 3-5 sentences.

Learning Task 7: In 3-5 sentences, share the significance of the word "continue" relating to Colossians and how you are challenged regarding the word "continue."

Learning Task 8: In 3-5 sentences, share how you would respond to someone who says Christians should worship angels.

Learning Task 9: In 5 sentences, share how you would respond to someone teaching that Christ is not fully God and that we need secret knowledge to be saved.

Learning Task 10: Look on page 171 and locate the chart with questions relating to the "effects of musing or meditating." Pick one of the 11 questions, answer it, and share why you chose the questions

Please note the following:

- Before submitting your Week 11 Learning Tasks for the Week 11 Quiz 11, review and reread your responses for grammatical errors, clarity, and correct in-text citations for information taken from the course textbook (only cite the page number). Correct in-text citation is required when using information from other sources (e.g., Crenshaw 2018, 17).
- No contractions (e.g., instead of writing "won't," "will not")

- Use Grammarly to check your work (The Premium Version is awesome at www.Grammarly.com).
- Do not expect the instructor or reader to edit your work. Become proficient in proofreading your work.
