

Morrison-Valfre: Foundations of Mental Health Care, 5th Edition

Chapter 3: Ethical and Legal Issues

Open Book Quiz

NAME: _____

1. List the three steps of values clarification. (See page 21 in your textbook.)
2. Define a right, and describe what roles rights have in society. (See page 21 in your textbook.)
3. How do people with mental illness lose their rights? (See page 22 in your textbook.)
4. What do health care ethics focus on? (See page 22 in your textbook.)
5. Ethical codes serve what purpose(s)? (See page 23 in your textbook.)
6. The client's rights to privacy, truth, and duty are protected by what ethical principles? (See page 23 in your textbook.)
7. What are the guidelines for making ethical decisions? (See page 24 in your textbook.)
8. Explain the two types of law. (See page 24 in your textbook.)
9. Under what conditions might a caregiver sacrifice a client's right to privacy? (See page 27 in your textbook.)
10. To be considered negligent, professional misconduct must meet what four requirements? (See page 27 in your textbook.)