

DeWit: Fundamental Concepts and Skills for Nursing, 4th Edition

Chapter 05: Assessment, Nursing Diagnosis, and Planning

Open-Book Quiz

NAME: _____

1. Identify and describe the three approaches to data collection. (See page 54 in your textbook.)
2. Compare subjective data and objective data. (See page 55 in your textbook.)
3. What are the three basic stages of the interview? (See page 58 in your textbook.)
4. Explain the purpose of the nursing diagnosis statement and describe how it is included with the medical diagnosis. (See page 61 in your textbook.)
5. How does a nursing diagnosis differ from a medical diagnosis? (See page 62 in your textbook.)
6. Once the nursing diagnoses have been designated, how are they prioritized? (See page 62 in your textbook.)
7. Describe the difference between short-term and long-term goals in the planning process. (See page 63 in your textbook.)
8. During the planning process, what questions should the nurse consider? (See page 63 in your textbook.)
9. What are the purposes of the language labels provided by the Nursing Outcomes Classification (NOC)? (See page 64 in your textbook.)
10. When should the nursing care plan be constructed? (See page 65 in your textbook.)

