

Lakeview College of Nursing Students

Hand-off Report for the RN

- Give report to the RN of what was done during your shift
 - o Include patient name/room number
 - o Diagnosis of what patient is here for
- Medications given during your shift
 - o Last time pain medication given/Name of pain medication
- Report last set of vitals and I&O's
 - o Make sure to communicate any abnormal vitals or outputs
 - o Communicate whether they ate or not
- Report anything that you were assigned to do but did not get done
 - o Example: bed bath/wound change, etc.
- Report any abnormal physical assessment findings with your patient
 - o Example: crackles in the bases, 4+ pitting edema, any noted wounds, etc.