Background

Therapeutic communication is a fundamental component of nursing and is a complex concept. Ensuring positive encounters between nurses and patients is essential for improving the quality of nursing interactions, the performance of various nursing duties, and meeting patients' diverse needs (Abdolrahimi et al., 2017).

This assignment will help students feel comfortable initiating conversations with older adults and raising awareness of older persons' wishes, expectations, resources, cultural traditions, and strengths.

Additional Guidelines:

- Plagiarism will result in a zero on the assignment.
- Follow the directions within each graded section.
- A template for the interview process is provided below.
- All assignments must be completed in Microsoft Word.
- PDF and other formats will not be accepted.
- Follow Grammarly settings per the syllabus for clarity and mechanics.
- Review syllabus for late work policy.

Step One: Interview process:

Step One: Directions: Each student will independently complete the Therapeutic Communication Gerontology Assignment. Students will select an older adult to interview. The interviewee may be a family member, and the interviewee does not have to be a patient. Interviews can be face-to-face, virtual, or by phone. Each interview should be a minimum of 20 minutes. Students should ask a minimum of FIVE question. Example questions are listed below. Students can phrase the questions in a conversational tone. A student may ask a question not listed below but must write down additional questions in interview process chart provided. Students are to complete the Interview Process Chart per chart directions.

Example Interview questions:

1. What are the most rewarding things about getting older? Is it a lifetime of knowledge?
2. What are the most important lessons you have learned in your life? Ask to hear the stories behind those lessons.
 - How to survive on your home- being by herself (paying her own bills & making it to the end of the month) 30 years by herself

3. Who has influenced you the most?
 - Aunt Jo & Uncle Bill- like a second set of parents; spend all summers in Chicago; done a lot of family things (museums, nice restaurants, taught how to save money, always able to talk to them & they listened)
4. What life advice would you pass to future generations?
5. If you could go back to any age, what would it be? Would they stay the age they are now or go back? How far back? What was life like at that time?
6. What do you remember about the place you grew up? Do they still live there, or have they visited? If so, how has it changed?
 - Outhouse; Tilton, IL; yes when mom & stepdad married they built a new house on the property; does not visit since mom died & house sold; didn't even have running water, had a well outside that they had to pump water into & mother had a stove to heat the water
7. Which invention from your lifetime that amazed you? What was life like before?
8. What was your favorite movie when you were younger?
 - Hatari- John Wayne; Hell Fighters- John Wayne
9. What was your first job? How about your favorite?
 - Jocko's Root Beer Stand; yes- Jocko & Shirley were the nicest people- so nice asked to adopt her

Step Two: Interview Evaluation-Reflective Activity

Step Two Directions: After interviewing an older adult, students are to complete a self-reflective evaluation. Answer all FOUR questions listed below. Complete in full sentences with proper clarity and mechanics. Follow rubric for full guidelines.

1. What are the major take-home lessons after interviewing an older adult?
 - The major take-home lessons that this student acquired were sometimes older adults just want someone to talk to.
2. How can a nurse adapt their practice to be more responsive to the unique needs of an older adult client?
 - A nurse can adapt their practice to be more responsive to the unique needs of an older adult client by just talking with them and listening attentively to show that they are interested in what they have to say.
3. In what way is a student building their nursing skills by interviewing patients including older adults?
 - This student is building their nursing skills by learning what it is that clients want and how to effectively communicate with them by showing both verbal and non-verbal indicators.
4. Reflect on one question and expand on how the communication could improve.
 - Question number one could have improved by asking more questions about how the interviewee has adapted to being alone for so long and what some advantages and disadvantages were.
