

22. What are the symptoms of the virus?

coughing, fever, cannot swallow, headache, and seizures.

23. How do they develop a vaccine?

They test vaccines on monkeys and develop it by multiplying the virus and growing it.

24. How is the vaccine administered?

IM and intravenously

25. Is it a live virus vaccine versus an attenuated virus vaccine?

It's an attenuated vaccine

What is the difference?

A live virus vaccine is a virus in its form VS an attenuated.

26. What sort of immunity does the vaccine provide?

The vaccine provides active immunity

27. How can the vaccine be administered to the greatest number of people?

Low cost / free, available to all age ranges, and having many facilities across administering the vaccine

28. How does the environment, transportation, communication, essential services, government, and health care facilities get involved?

The facilities were notified and got involved by tracking down the virus.

29. In your opinion do local, national, and global politics make a difference in the development and distribution of the vaccine?

yes

Explain your opinion?

Access to funds to provide the vaccine, as well as the freedom to take the vaccine

30. Does it make a difference if there is a rush to develop the vaccine?

yes, that can't be done thoroughly if vaccines are rushed.