Access and Accommodations:

Your experience in this class is important to me. If you have already established accommodations with Disability Services, please communicate with me so that we may implement your approved accommodations in this course.

If you have not yet established services, but have a temporary health condition or permanent disability that requires accommodations (conditions include but not limited to: mental health, attention-related, learning, vision, hearing, physical or health impacts), you are welcome to contact studentsfirst@lcn.edu to see if you are eligible for accommodations. Disability Services offers resources and coordinates reasonable for students with disabilities and/or temporary health conditions. Reasonable accommodations are established through an interactive process between you, the instructor, and Disability Services. It is the policy and practice of the Lakeview College of Nursing to create inclusive and accessible learning environments consistent with federal and state law.

Academic Integrity

Lakeview College of Nursing is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity in the classroom and clinical setting and it is the responsibility of all stakeholders-faculty, staff, and students to ensure these standards are being met.

More about the expected standards of behavior can be found in this year's academic handbook at:
