Background

Therapeutic communication is a fundamental component of nursing and is a complex concept. Ensuring positive encounters between nurses and patients is essential for improving the quality of nursing interactions, the performance of various nursing duties, and meeting patients' diverse needs (Abdolrahimi et al., 2017).

This assignment will help students feel comfortable initiating conversations with older adults and raising awareness of older persons' wishes, expectations, resources, cultural traditions, and strengths.

Additional Guidelines:

- Plagiarism will result in a zero on the assignment.
- Follow the directions within each graded section.
- A template for the interview process is provided below.
- No late work will be accepted. Late work will earn a zero.
- All assignments must be completed in Microsoft Word.
- PDF and other formats will not be accepted.

Step One: Interview process:

Step One: Directions: Each student will independently complete the Therapeutic Communication Gerontology Assignment. Students will select an older adult to interview. The interviewee may be a family member, and the interviewee does not have to be a patient. Interviews can be face-to-face, virtual, or by phone. Each interview should be a minimum of 20 minutes. Students should ask a minimum of FIVE question. Example questions are listed below. Students can phrase the questions in a conversational tone. A student may ask a question not listed below but must write down additional questions in interview process chart provided. Students are to complete the Interview Process Chart per chart directions.

Example Interview questions:

1. What are the most rewarding things about getting older? Is it a lifetime of knowledge?
2. What are the most important lessons you have learned in your life? Ask to hear the stories behind those lessons.
3. Who has influenced you the most?
4. What life advice would you pass to future generations?

5. If you could go back to any age, what would it be? Would they stay the age they are now or go back? How far back? What was life like at that time?
6. What do you remember about the place you grew up? Do they still live there, or have they visited? If so, how has it changed?
7. Which invention from your lifetime that amazed you? What was life like before?
8. What was your favorite movie when you were younger?
9. What was your first job? How about your favorite?

1 .What are the most rewarding things about getting older? Is it a lifetime of knowledge?	Verbal -Active Listening Non-Verbal -Maintained Eye Contact	Verbal -Clarity Non-Verbal -Maintained Eye Contact	The client seemed satisfied with her knowledge and experience as she ages. It was nice to hear that she has led a full life without voicing any regrets.
3. Who has influenced you the most?	Verbal -Open-ended Questions Non-Verbal- leaned forward to show attentiveness	Verbal -Summarizing Non-Verbal -Silence	The client had several individuals who influenced her throughout her life, but the one that she remembered the most was a principal from 1952.
6.What do you			The client remembered several details about her environment

remember about the place you grew up? Do they still live there, or have they visited? If so, how has it changed?	Verbal -Empathy Non-Verbal -Tone of voice	Verbal -Clarity Non-Verbal -Touch	growing up that were not good memories.
8.What was your favorite movie when you were younger?	Verbal -Active Listening Non-Verbal -Facial Expressions	Verbal -Summarizing Non-Verbal -Posture	The client reminisced with fondness several movies that she loved.
9.What was your first job? How about your favorite?	Verbal -Open-ended Questions Non-Verbal -Body Language- leaning forward to show that I was interested.	Verbal -Confidence Non-Verbal -Body Language- maintained eye contact	I was surprised with how much detail the client gave about her first job, especially being 89 years old.

Step Two: Interview Evaluation-Reflective Activity

Step Two Directions: After interviewing an older adult, students are to complete a self-reflective evaluation. Answer all FOUR questions listed below. Complete in full sentences with proper clarity and mechanics. Follow rubric for full guidelines.

1. What are the major take-home lessons after interviewing an older adult? Older adults have a wealth of knowledge and experience that most of them are more than willing to share with someone who will listen. Also, the adult client that I interviewed seemed very happy to have someone ask these questions for conversation but also for reminiscing. It lightened her mood.
2. How can a nurse adapt their practice to be more responsive to the unique needs of an older adult client? A nurse of an older adult client should be prepared and willing to just listen to what the older adult client has to say. The nurse should realize that the client may be feeling lonely at that moment and if they lend an ear it might help with the client's mental health and quality of life. Also, to realize that most of the myths about older adults are not true. For example, some may say they are "needy" or maybe "talk too much."
3. In what way is a student building their nursing skills by interviewing patients including older adults? To realize that as a nurse, I will deal with clients from newborn to adult and they all have their unique care that is needed.
4. Reflect on one question and expand on how the communication could improve. For question number 1, I could have asked the client to expand more on getting older and the rewards. Looking back, I did not get a good in-depth answer and I should have asked more open-ended questions.
