

Week 5 leadership homework

1. Your nursing license can never be taken away

TRUE

FALSE

2. Who sets the rules and regulation for each state, can revoke licenses, and reviews negligence issues

State board of nursing

---

3. What are frequent claims against nurses

Inadequate charting, Inadequate communication with physician or supervisors about changes in patients conditions, leaving potentially harmful items within patient reach, unattended patient falls, inaccurate counting of operating instruments and sponges, misidentifying patients or medications/surgeries/tests.

---

4. I should put my feelings in an incident report then document in patients' chart

TRUE

FALSE

5. What is it called if you threaten a client

A. Libel

B. Battery

C. Assault

D. Defamation

6. The client does not need to understand informed consent

TRUE

FALSE

7. Informed consent must be given by the provider

TRUE

FALSE

8. I can look up my own records

TRUE

FALSE

9. A nurse stops to help a car crash victim, what is the nurse protected by

Good Samaritan law

---

10. Discussing clients to others just to gossip is ok

TRUE

FALSE

11. SSN, Birthdate, photos, address, license plate number are all examples of protected health information

TRUE

FALSE

12. I should refer to the Nurse Practice Act when consulting nurse practice

TRUE

FALSE

13. in a legal proceeding, the standard that will be used to determine if the nurse was negligent is which of the following?

A. An expert nurse provides testimony that the nurse should have handled

B. Another staff nurse provides testimony about how a reasonable, prudent nurse would the situation differently

C. The client's attorney states that injury to the client could have been prevented have handled the situation

D. The client's provider testifies the nurse was at fault for the injury