

Examine the use of diversions to manage altered elimination.

No remediation material

Topics To Review - Correct

Discuss body functions related to the production of urine and feces. (5 items)

Causes of Urine Concentration
Expected Findings With the Production of Urine
Identifying Age-Related Changes to the Urinary System
Primary Function of the Urinary Tract
Vitamin K Production

Discuss conditions that alter a client's elimination patterns. (5 items)

Age-Related Risk Factors for Alterations in Urinary Elimination
Identifying Consequences of Not Treating a Urinary Tract Infection
Identifying How Antibiotics Affect Diarrhea
Identifying Manifestations of Dehydration
Identifying Medication Classifications That Cause Constipation

Explore expected and unexpected findings related to elimination. (4 items)

Identifying Altered Elimination Patterns
Identifying Risk Factors for Urinary Retention
Identifying Stress Incontinence
Identifying the Correct Diet for a Client Who Has Diarrhea

Discuss nursing interventions that can facilitate or maintain a client's elimination patterns. (3 items)

Administering an Enema
Assisting a Client With Bladder Training
Identifying Bladder Irritants

Identify diagnostic tests related to elimination and the nurse's role in obtaining specimens. (5 items)

Clean Catch Urine Specimen
Fecal Occult Blood Test
Recognizing Cystometric Testing
Urinalysis Testing
Urine Culture

Examine the use of diversions to manage altered elimination. (5 items)

Complications of Fecal Diversions
Diversions to Manage Altered Elimination
Educating a Client Who Has an Ileostomy
Monitoring for Complications of Fecal Diversions
Nephrostomy Tube Placement