

Topics To Review - Correct

Discuss body functions related to the production of urine and feces. (5 items)

- Causes of Urine Concentration
- Expected Findings With the Production of Urine
- Identifying Age-Related Changes to the Urinary System
- Primary Function of the Urinary Tract
- Vitamin K Production

Discuss conditions that alter a client's elimination patterns. (5 items)

- Age-Related Risk Factors for Alterations in Urinary Elimination
- Identifying Consequences of Not Treating a Urinary Tract Infection
- Identifying How Antibiotics Affect Diarrhea
- Identifying Manifestations of Dehydration
- Identifying Medication Classifications That Cause Constipation

Explore expected and unexpected findings related to elimination. (5 items)

- Identifying Altered Elimination Patterns
- Identifying Risk Factors for Diarrhea
- Identifying Risk Factors for Urinary Retention
- Identifying Stress Incontinence
- Identifying the Correct Diet for a Client Who Has Diarrhea

Discuss nursing interventions that can facilitate or maintain a client's elimination patterns. (5 items)

- Administering an Enema
- Assisting a Client With Bladder Training
- Educating a Client About Catheterization
- Identifying Bladder Irritants
- Nasogastric Tube Insertion

Identify diagnostic tests related to elimination and the nurse's role in obtaining specimens. (5 items)

- Clean Catch Urine Specimen
- Fecal Occult Blood Test
- Recognizing Cystometric Testing
- Urinalysis Testing
- Urine Culture

Examine the use of diversions to manage altered elimination. (5 items)

- Complications of Fecal Diversions
- Diversions to Manage Altered Elimination
- Educating a Client Who Has an Ileostomy
- Monitoring for Complications of Fecal Diversions
- Nephrostomy Tube Placement