

Topics To Review - Incorrect

Examine the dynamics and signs of violent behaviors in the community.

No remediation material

Analyze the nursing role in working with people who have experienced violence/ abuse.

No remediation material

Evaluate strategies that nurses can use to improve health outcomes and eliminate health disparities of people who have experienced violence.

No remediation material

Differentiate factors in communities that encourage violence and abuse.

No remediation material

Topics To Review - Correct

Examine the dynamics and signs of violent behaviors in the community. (5 items)

Assessing an Older Adult Client for Risks of Abuse
Caring for a Client Who Has Sustained Injuries from Intimate Partner Violence
Identifying Possible Signs of Child Abuse in Infants
Identifying Risks for Human Trafficking
Recognizing Microaggressions in the Healthcare Setting

Analyze the nursing role in working with people who have experienced violence/ abuse. (5 items)

Addressing Bruising on an Older Adult Client
Caring for a Child Who Has Experienced Neglect
Caring for an Adolescent Who Has Been the Victim of Cyber-Bullying
Creating a Plan of Care for a Client Who Has Experienced Abuse
Identifying Factors That Put Children at Risk for Exposure to Violence

Evaluate strategies that nurses can use to improve health outcomes and eliminate health disparities of people who have experienced violence. (5 items)

Advocating to Prevent Abuse
Caring for a Client Who is Having Trouble Sleeping Following Sexual Assault
Identifying Clients Who May Have Experienced Abuse or Violence
Intergenerational Cycle of Violence
Providing Patient-Centered Care for a Client Who Has Left an Abusive Partner

Differentiate factors in communities that encourage violence and abuse. (5 items)

Addressing Community Risk Factors That Increase the Risk of Students Experiencing Violence
Environmental Factors of Neglect
Promoting Prevention of Child Abuse
Promoting Safe Work Culture
Recognizing Relationship Factors that Put Older Adult Clients at Risk of Neglect