FINAL GRADE

FACULTY COMMENTS

Kelsey has demonstrated solid growth throughout the mental health clinical rotation. They consistently engaged in therapeutic communication with clients, maintained professional boundaries, and upheld confidentiality at all times. The student applied mental health theory to client care and participated actively in clinical assignments and post-conference discussions. They demonstrated safe nursing practices and were receptive to feedback, using it to improve their clinical performance. Kelsey shows professionalism in their interactions with staff, clients, and peers. As they continue to grow in their nursing practice, they are encouraged to further develop their confidence in client education, deepen their assessment skills, and refine therapeutic communication in challenging situations.
