

Madison Rigsby
Adult Health I
ATI Case Study
6/1/2020

The nurse discovers that the pharmacy sent the wrong medicine. They sent up 750 mg of fluconazole instead of metronidazole. He did the right thing by calling pharmacy to verify the medication. He can avoid medication errors by following the “rights” before administering the medication to the patient.