

Lakeview College of Nursing
N308 Nursing of the Childrearing Family

Teaching Project Evaluation Form - Presentation Component

Student: Kristen Lasco, Pamela Coleman
Anna Loveland, Brittany Manguerac Date: 9/20/10

Project: Nutrition - Site: Learning Zone
Bird feeders theme Trees

Each item worth 2 points:

- | | |
|--|------------------------|
| 1. Age appropriate material for the group taught | 2 |
| 2. Sufficient content to the material taught (not too much or too little) | 2 |
| 3. Well presented - focused, organized | 2 |
| 4. Relevant to the group taught | 2 |
| 5. Held group's attention - teaching aids well planned | 2 |
| 6. Presenter(s) were well prepared | 2 |
| 7. Audience responded to the presentation in a positive way | 2 |
| 8. Presenter(s) had appropriate control over environment (arrangement of seating, inclusion and recognition of all children, able to keep control over unwelcome behaviors) | 1 |
| 9. Age and developmentally appropriate interaction with the audience | 2 |
| 10. Presenter(s) spoke clearly, used good grammar, & spoke at a volume that could be heard by the whole group. | 2 |
| 11. Presenter(s) were aware of group response and were able to adapt presentation to group needs if/when needed - were flexible. | 2 |
| 12. Provided opportunities for the audience to participate. | 2 |
| 13. Provided time for audience to ask questions. | 2 |
| 14. Teaching aids: poster(s), handouts, etc. (worth 4 points) - poster, craft | 4 |
| Total points possible 30 | Total 29 |

Comments: Anna way to take charge & get their attention.
Good organization on the bird feeder/coloring project.

Evaluator C. Conner Date: 9/20/10