

1. According to Washer, what is the greatest endeavor of the Christian?

The greatest endeavor of a Christian is to know God, not just facts about Him but through and intimate relationship with Him.

2. According to Washer, what is our greatest need?

Our greatest need is communion with God, to pray, to kneel at his feet, to study his word. To constantly delight in the Lord and constantly look for Him.

3. According to Washer, what does it mean to be salt of the earth and light of the world?

In order for a Christian to be salt of the earth he must be nourished constantly in the words of faith.

4. According to Washer, what are the three things that should "mark us?"

The three things that mark us are: prayer, a nourishment in the word, sound doctrine and the work of the Holy Spirit. A true disciple has certain characteristics that set him apart, and they come from this life of devotion.

5. According to Washer, how do we become Christ-like?

We become Christ-like, when we show the character of an example of those who believe, in speech and in conduct.

6. According to Washer, what does it mean to be the salt of the earth?