

Discipleship Week 9 Review Questions

1. What is meant by “majority church?”

The majority church can be thought of as a third world church otherwise known as the Southern Church. The recession of Christianity seems to be continuing with the European people. However, a new age of Christianity is coming forth with it's new base being located in the Southern continents where it's dominate expression will be filtered through the culture of Latin America, Africa and Asia.

2. What is the global mission of the global church?

To share the good news of the gospel must be the unified mission of the Global church.

The mission to share the good news of the gospel must be the unified mission of the Global church.

3. According to Platt, what makes the Great Commission, “great?”

For their sake, for God's sake we are looking forward to the day a great multitude no one can count from every nation, tongue and language that gathers before the throne and the lamb and cries out that salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne and the lamb. Salvation for others sake and among more and more people all leading to glory for God 'sake among more and more people. As we live to extend God's grace among more people let's live to extend God's grace among all people.

4. How can you connect the call to make disciples to the call to the nations?

The spread of the gospel from Jesus is to be carried through out the entire world. A disciple must know when called to go to other nations to spread the gospel will be meet with percussion, hardship and even death all for the price of Christianity and the love of God. However, as we share the good news in other nations we are to seek and train disciples to carry on the gospel.

5. How can you tangibly be part of seeing disciples made in other nations?

By the fruits of the disciple you are pouring into a believer. Also if they are carrying forward that training to make more disciples for the Kingdom of God.

