

According to Charles Colson, of all of Jesus' claims, what was the most remarkable?

That Jesus Himself claimed to be not merely a prophet but God incarnate.

What was Jesus really claiming to be?

The Incarnate God.

Although Marx promised utopia through communism, what did he actually create?

Totalitarianism and oppression, especially upon Christian peoples.

What is the problem with "inclusivity"?

It rejects absolute truth claims, which are necessary to understand both the faith and reality.

Do you agree with Colson that "failure to commit to a particular church is failure to obey Christ"?

Yes, the believer ought to be among a body of believers as he seeks to grow up into the unity of the faith with the communion of the saints.