

Activity Name: Maternal 911

Speaker Names: Shelly Betancourt, WHNP-BC and Michelle Becher, DO

Target Audience: National OB/GYN physicians, midwives, nurses, and medical students

Learning Objectives - Upon completion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

Objective 1: Explain amniotic fluid embolism

Objective 2: Explain how amniotic fluid embolism can occur

Objective 3: Identify risks associated with amniotic fluid embolism syndrome

Objective 4: Recognize the signs and symptoms of amniotic fluid embolism

Objective 5: Initiate the initial steps of amniotic fluid embolism resuscitation with the application of equipment

Objective 6: Describe the medications used for resuscitation and how they may affect the mother and fetus

Objective 7: Develop sound critical judgment in the delivery of health care in a labor and delivery unit when DIC occurs

Objective 8: Discuss learning theories and instructional implications regarding health care delivery in a labor and delivery unit when DIC occurs

Objective 9: Develop, implement, and evaluate health care delivery in a practice setting prior to an actual event

Objective 10: Have improved knowledge in active health care delivery

Objective 11: Address issues and implement changes in the health care unit as necessary to ensure a safe environment

Objective 12: Convert proven learning into actual health care delivery

Method of Participation to Earn AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™]:

- Read this CME Accreditation piece and educational objectives
- Complete the required pre-test quiz
- Participate in the online learning activity
- Complete the required post-test quiz and achieve a score of at least 80%
- A certificate of completion will be provided to those participants obtaining a passing score of 80% or greater for modules 1 -19.
- The participant will take the certificate to the hospital trainer and undergo the Maternal 911 in Action (mock drill).
- The hospital trainer will notify Maternal 911 of the successful completion of Maternal 911 in Action
- The participant will be provided a card of completion
- The participant will be notified when CME certificates are available and will follow the process provided in the email to claim their certificate.

Accreditation Statement:

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of Michigan State University and Maternal 911 Education System, LLC. Michigan State University is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Michigan State University designates this enduring material activity for a maximum of 20 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CME ACTIVITY INFORMATION

Summary of Financial Disclosures:

No financial relationships to disclose.

Commercial Support Disclosure:

No commercial support was provided for this CME activity

Release Date: May 15, 2020

Expiration Date: May 14, 2023

Estimated Time of Completion: 20 hours

Faculty Credentials and Disclosures:

Michelle Becher, DO, Co-Founder and Partner of Maternal 911

Shelly Betancourt, WHNP-BC, CEO and Founder of Maternal 911

Contact Information:

If you experience issues with the online CME system, please contact Kathy Collins at colli498@msu.edu .

Bibliographic Sources:

The bibliographic sources are included within each individual module.