Departmental Action Plan

Dealership Tom Nehl Truck Company

Academy Week Week 2

Class & I

Current Situation

We have a large inventory of parts and overall we do a good job in the warehouse hundreds of parts with wrong counts in the bin. Upon further investigation we as where they are supposed to be. This is confusing to a parts runner and customer house.

Overall Objective:

The alternate location is usually "display" or "overflow." My objective would be to move the alternate location in Karmak fusion. This will prevent lost sales and confusion and reduce inventory time.

Proposed Timeline

This can be implemented rather quickly. A bin count and audit for the display area.

Action Plan

First item would be that the warehouse supervisor would perform a bin count and audit for the display area.
