

Need to put more time and focus into selling and displaying accessories.

The displaying of more retail and accessories parts will result in high sales, brand advertising and returning of loyal customers.

With the help with the GM and sales management we can make room for displays and accessorize vehicles. Creating a plan for the sales team to help make accessory selling easier.

Completing all these steps immediately will result in higher sales and customer retention.