

Unfortunately, my Parts Dept. is down to 1 counter man at this time. My dedicated wholesale guy is out until the first of the year. We are very limited as to what we can do without a delivery driver. Currently we have 7 active accounts (small area) in which they send their drivers to us pick up their parts. Looking to add another employee (counter) to give my wholesale employee more opportunity to get out and bring in new accounts.