The crisis of character ... that isn't

Main idea

Discussion

1. Can a human agency make a difference in regard to a crisis of character?
2. How is our culture's moral culture formed?

My Question(s):

Reflection

1. How was your generation in a moral crisis? Do you see the next generation in a moral crisis?

Reaction

1. What evidence can you cite as evidence of a "moral crisis" in the next generation?

Character Matters: How to help our children develop good judgment, integrity, and other essential virtues. by Likona, Thomas (2004).

This book will be read quickly for the big ideas. Chapter 5 focuses on the teacher and the personal relationship with students. Write a paragraph about how you as a teacher would establish a personal relationship with students. How have you seen the research cited in the chapter demonstrated in your life?
