Name: _____ Room #/Building: _____

The times we designate as quiet and/or study times are: _____

The times we designate as noisy (i.e. social, TV, music, and fun) are: _____

Guests are welcome during the following hours: _____

Overnight guests are welcome under the following conditions or on the following nights:

Regarding sleeping times and rising times (lights, etc.) we decided: _____

About open windows and temperature: _____

Regarding the use of things in our room;

For the lending and borrowing of personal items (i.e. toiletries, clothes, pens) we decided:

For using/caring for the larger items in our room (i.e. TV, stereo, microwave (Dunbar), fridge) we decided:

For purchasing/sharing of food we decided: _____

Our wall space (for decorating, etc.) will be used: _____

We decided the following about room cleaning, recycling/garbage disposal, etc.

Regarding personal habits....

About our own personal hygiene (shower, etc.):

About noxious odors (shoes, loads of dirty laundry):

About personal habits (quiet time, singing, etc.):

Other:

Communication is the key to getting along as roommates. A positive communication system is one that involves being honest with each other, without being harsh or rude, being open, and allowing for the sharing of frustrations.

Re-negotiating items when needed is a right of both roommates!
