Please complete the following:

Personal goals:

My Personal goal is to be able to obtain and acquire better Time Management. I've self reflected that I don't designate or combine my work within a certain amount of time. I will like to complete a substantial amount of work for a (small amount) shorter amount of time.

Professional activities goals:

My Professional activity goal is to be able to reflect a leadership goal in all the work I complete and I adapt myself to. For instance, I will love for others to see and seek the same or some of the work ethic that I place in the work I'm suppose to accomplish, and complete. My second activity goal is to be able to branch out and obtain new experiences.

What are the related CRJ Theories?

Throughout the years there has always been a division towards different individuals in Society. We need to start evaluating the techniques that have been cooperating and those that haven't, so leaders can begin to make great impact towards individuals everyday living.
