4 hours: researching and posting content for YG Instagram account including 'push up challenge' that included youth group kids and leaders from all over the U.S

Been sharing my pastor's 15-30 min daily devotions which have gotten increasingly bold in calling out the issues we both see in our specific ethnic church and ethnic churches overall and Christians in general.

2 hrs contributed to the online Bible study with AEC NYC Armenian church/pastor Haig Tuesday

Also been processing my own outlook on all of this. I'm getting to the point of frustration with it and I want it to be over.

Work outs 2 hrs

I was totally blessed by the first youth group zoom meeting we had. It was definitely controlled chaos with some kids playing fortnite and gaming at the same time but there was a majority who came on and received what we were talking about and thankful for my efforts. I spoke on John 14 about the peace of Christ, gave them a bible study blue print including a chronological 1 yr bible reading plan and 365 sayings of Christ to help guide their decisions especially while we're in quarantine.

3 hrs daily bible reading/meditation

1 hr zoom meeting with mentor.

3 hr zoom youth group meeting and preparation with east coast churches students from Boston, Cali, Detroit, Philly, and NJ PRAISE GOD

The young adults version of it was a last min decision but thankful we did it too. Only 8 people and part of it was because my zoom link was wrong! Learning curve on my part. The discussion was excellent and we had people on who never came to the Young Pros group from my church and some who are newer to church in general. Either way the Lord is using the quarantine to draw people to himself with technology.

1.5 hr zoom meeting for young professionals

MEETING(S) WITH MENTOR(S) || TOPICS OF DISCUSSION || REFLECTIONS

In my meeting with my pastor he had an online meeting with other pastors Tuesday but didn't really like it. They're planning a multi-site and collaborative service with multiple pastors preaching. He was hoping the discussion would be more uplifting...it was more maintenance mode and did not produce a joyful atmosphere and didn't share the good things going on. He wanted to be uplifted but wasn't.

He is a 'feeler' so anytime there is a group he feels something off of them...dissonance and gets levels of faith coming at him. And he gets overwhelmed at the differences and levels are because of a different focus and background...it was tiring.
