

PMN 393 – Community Service Internship
Professional Dispositions Evaluation

To be filled out by Intern Supervisor – File With Pastoral Ministry Dept. Head

Intern: Alexa Morales Semester: Spring or Fall Year 20 20

This evaluation assesses the professional affective dispositions, characteristics, and behaviors of Pastoral Interns. It does not address scholarship or achievement criteria. Students will review this evaluation.

Please use the following scale for each of the items to follow:

- N – Not Observed                      1 – To No Extent                      2 – To A Little Extent
3 – To A Moderate Extent                      4 – To A great Extent

- 4 1. Demeanor: The student demonstrated positive attitudes in interactions with staff and people.
- 4 2. Responsibility: The student undertook and completed assigned tasks.
- 4 3. Maturity: The student displayed maturity and poise in completing tasks and interacting with people.
- 4 4. Cooperation: The student displayed a positive willingness to work with others.
- 4 5. Flexibility: The student displayed a willingness and ability to adapt to changes in events, conditions, activities, and tasks.
- 4 6. Appearance: Appropriate and professional.
- 4 7. Attendance/Punctuality: The student was regular and punctual.
- 4 8. Initiative: The student displayed independence in starting and completing assigned activities
- 4 9. Awareness of Individual Differences:
The student displayed a recognition of and empathy for human differences in ethnicity, gender, physical ability, and intellectual ability.
- 4 10. Patience: The student displayed the ability to be patient in activities, and interaction with people.
- N/A 11. Tactfulness: The student displayed the ability to recognize and compensate for the feelings and self-esteem of others.
- 4 12. Enthusiasm: The student displayed energy and enthusiasm and responded appropriately to humor in human to human interactions.
- 4 13. Organization: The student displayed the ability to monitor and control time and materials.
- N/A 14. Creativity: The student displayed the ability to synthesize theology and practice into new personalized adaptation and applications.