

Week 8

Pascal

- 1.) People bet with their lives that god either exist or doesn't. to believe in God means an eternity in heaven.
- 2.) He tells him to learn from those who were tied like them and who now wager all they possess.

Kierkegaard

- 1.) Believes faith doesn't result simply from a scientific inquiry, it doesn't come directly at all.
- 2.) Objective thinkers do not find an eternal happiness subjective truth, and is disinterested in the truth of subjectivity.
- 3.) An existing individual is constantly in process of becoming. There is no certainty with people.