Global Mindset

Introduction

What does it mean to have a global mindset?

All responses must begin with indentation and be written in double space. As you will notice that both margins are at one inch. The entire document has a running header with page numbers on the right. First headings are centered and bold. Second headers are aligned left and bold. Third headers are left indented and bold. Any time there is an idea or quote taken from a reading source you need to cite it e.g. Source (Date) or (Source, Date). These are the basics of APA. If you have any other questions, please reference your APA book.

What behaviors are necessary that allows a leader to develop a truly global mindset?
