

“5-3-1” Chapter 3 Review

QUESTIONS

1. What compels believers to perform acts of mercy, justice, and stewardship because of God’s grace?
2. What roles would show God’s most visible expression through Jesus Christ?
3. Which divine characteristic is given to deal with human sin and moral failure?
4. What belief is based on the dynamic principle of Christian ethics according to Carl F.H. Henry’s Christian Personal Ethics?
5. What is the ground, the norm and the power for Character Ethics?

Answers

1. Redemption
2. Christian ethics
3. God’s grace
4. The acceptance of the Holy Spirit
5. Triune God

TERMS

Ethos: the group’s tone, character, or moral style based on its beliefs

Choosing the good: a life of love towards God and your neighbors

Protoevangelium: the first glimpse of the gospel in the Old Testament

SUMMARY

The Christian worldview teaches the systematic nature of God, the love for his creation and the way for humankind to be reconciled back to Him. God sent his son to redeem mankind through his blood that was shed on the cross, while taking on the sins of man and exchanging his righteousness. The repentance of man through Jesus put him in right standing with God.