

Assignment Title: Critical Assessment

Name: Jun Zhao

Campus Location: NYC

Course Title: Working with People

Semester & Year: Spring, 2020

Professor: Martin Sanders & Michelle Park

Date Submitted: 06/20/20

1.

Book#1: Designing Your Life: How to Build a Well-lived Joyful Life. Success will not bring happiness for me, the happiness comes from designing a life that works for me.

Book#2: A Creative Minority. As a minority, how church will participate in this new dynamic is a question needed to work through from all of us.

Book #3: Difficult Conversations: How to Discuss What Matters Most. “contribution” is a mentality which will turn most difficult conversation into a problem solving discussion. which leads to understanding and corporation.

Book #4: The Road Trip That Changed the World. How to distinguish the world and church, the road and home.

Book #5: Getting to Yes: Negotiating Agreement without Give In. How to negotiate when facing conflict.

Book #6: The complete Guide to Crisis & Trauma Counseling. In time of Crisis or Trauma what and when to say something, is the most important skill to help people.

Book #7: Anxious to Please: 7 Revolutionary Practices for the Chronically Nice. It’s a book of rebirth and reparent oneself.

Book #8: The Soul of Shame. What we believe about ourselves, some of the stories need to be rewrite.

